Hi, my name is Marek and I'm 17 years old student from Slovakia.

I have really strong passion to study in the USA.

I'm looking for a California based volunteer host family for next school year.

Prolog

Hostmeinca.com

My passion for experiencing California started few years ago when I came up with the web site Hostmeinca.com. I was looking for a host family and study opportunities. This web site got a huge media attention all around the world but I was not successful in finding the right host family.

This experience pushed me forward to try it again and look for an internship for June, July and August.
